

IN TIME OF NEED—Harold Brunhaver, shown holding a bundle of Bellingham Herald's, proved himself a "Good Samaritan" in time of need last Thursday when he hitched his two horses to a "stone boat" sled and took a neighbor's expectant wife to North Bellingham hospital. Unable to return home because of deep drifts and increasing winds, he waited until Saturday to load his sled with groceries and papers for the neighborhood, in the area of the Wiser Lake and Ritter roads. In the picture with Brunhaver, a berry farmer, are Helmut Zurflaw, left, Mrs. Catherine Burke, a cousin at whose home he stayed the two nights; little Allen Burke, Sydnie VanCleve, Mrs. Alice VanCleve and Bruce Harding, husband and "new" father. They are pictured Saturday on the Northwest road.—Herald photo.
